Science Tokyo STAR Search

a comprehensive information about researchers at Science Tokyo

The screenshot shows the 'STAR Search' website for Tokyo Institute of Technology. The header includes the 'STAR Search' logo and the text 'Researcher Finder 東京工業大学STARサーチ / Tokyo Tech STAR Search'. A sidebar on the left contains navigation links: Home, Search (Basic, Advanced, Keyword, Affiliation, Areas of supervision, Research bases), About STAR Search, Search Fields, Statistics, Support (FAQ, Contact), and Link (Tokyo Institute of Technology, Tokyo Tech Portal, T2R2, OCW). The main content area features a description of the service, statistics (2,155 researchers, 8,660 searches, 119,554 views), and a list of top 5 access researchers. Below this is the 'Basic Search' form with fields for Name (Family name, First name), Affiliation, Areas of Supervision, Research Bases, Job Title (with a list of academic ranks), and Field of Specialization / Field of Study. A 'Delete' button is next to the field of study input. At the bottom are 'Add Search Item', 'Search', and 'Clear' buttons.
