Missouri S&T exchange program fact sheet

General information

Name of university: Missouri University of Science and Technology

Postal address: 105 Norwood Hall, 320 W 12th St., Rolla, MO, USA 65409

University official website: mst.edu

Study Abroad office website: studyabroad.mst.edu

Academic calendar:
- Fall semester: August to December
- Spring semester: January to May
- Future term academic calendars

Language: English-taught courses

Program outline

Available fields of study: Business, computing, education, engineering, information technology, liberal arts and humanities, and physical and social sciences. Find all available fields of study, visit the academic programs website.

Available courses: Course offering may vary by semester, find current course offerings on the Office of the Registrar's website.

Required language proficiency: English skills equal to or greater than an TOEFL score of 80, IELTS score of 6.5, Duolingo score of 115 or PTE score of 58.

Application period

Online application procedure: A student must be nominated by their university coordinator to studyabroad@mst.edu. For more information, visit the exchange and study abroad admission website.

Nomination deadlines:
- April 1: fall semester
- October 1: spring semester

Student orientation: Held in-person on campus, typically the week before classes begin.

Program fee: Students are responsible to pay:
- Housing
- Dining
- SEVIS fees
- Insurance
- Any bookstore charges

Other information

Visa: Mandatory for all exchange students to obtain a J-1 visa to study at Missouri S&T.

Insurance: Mandatory for all exchange students and will be charged to their S&T student accounts. Learn more about insurance requirements.

Arrival in the U.S.: Exchange students can make a shuttle reservation for pick-up from the St. Louis Lambert International Airport (STL) at no cost.

Accommodation: On-campus housing is recommended. Learn about housing and meal plan options.

MISSOURI S&T™ | Study Abroad Experiential Learning