Hampshire County	Hampshire County in Western Massachusetts is where city living meets homesteading, where you can sip a cosmo, dine on creative cuisine, and see a cow or two. In one weekend, you can explore our world-class museums, rocking music scene, bustling downtowns and hike to the peak of a mountain or snowshoe the iconic rail trails. Hampshire County is just one of those pockets on the planet where you can be yourself – any side, any shade, any shape. It’s one of the most inclusive places in the nation, and we embrace residents and visitors just the way they are. Use this visitors’ guide to find favorite hotspots in and around Amherst, Easthampton, Northampton, and South Hadley, and hidden gems in the hilltowns. Check out the Western MA Guide to learn about our beautiful area.
The Town of Amherst	Amherst—the most populous town in Hampshire County—is a vibrant, intellectual hub with three prestigious colleges: Amherst College, Hampshire College, and UMass Amherst. Bask in the academic tradition as you stroll through the grand campuses and recite poetry (try local heroine Emily Dickinson) under a towering elm tree. Then we might suggest enjoying the more hedonistic perks of a college town—late night pizza and cookies, fancy cocktails, and music. Amherst’s youthful, lively downtown boasts an independent movie theater, diverse restaurants, and a handful of coffee shops, museums, art galleries, and bookstores set against the backdrop of historical architecture and blooming flower gardens. Yes, it looks like a movie set for a quintessential New England town—only Amherst is the real deal. Much like the rest of Hampshire County, Amherst is known for its bookishness, its artsiness, its local food obsession, its openness and tolerance, and its beauty. Travel farther afield to swim in the beloved Puffer’s Pond or hike Amethyst Brook. Swing by the University Museum to see contemporary art (Warhol, anyone?), before you watch a touring dance company take the stage at the Fine Arts Center. Retrieved from visithampshirecounty.com
