Wageningen University & Research

Wageningen University & Research (WUR) is one of the leading international universities and research institutes in the field of healthy food and the living environment. Here, you will focus on current and future global issues that are of increasing importance to both industry and government.

WUR has an excellent international reputation. More than 50% of the BSc courses and all MSc courses are taught in English. In the field of agricultural sciences WUR has repeatedly ranked as the number one university in the world.

Studying in Wageningen means multi-disciplinary, practically oriented education and personal contact between students and professors.

To facilitate the integration of knowledge from both the university and research institutes, WUR has an innovative campus that is designed to stimulate interaction between students, professors and researchers. As a result, many renowned companies in food and agriculture have their Research & Development departments located on or next to Wageningen Campus.

How to arrange your exchange to WUR

Checklist

1. Check if WUR is a partner institution/has a bilateral agreement for exchange

There should be an inter-institutional agreement for Student Mobility for Study (SMS) between the home university and Wageningen University & Research. Ask your Exchange Coordinator if this is the case. Exchange students should be registered as a regular student at one of the partner universities during their exchange.

2. Check if you fulfil the academic background criteria

Depending on the programme a minimum of 60-120 ECTS should have been completed before the exchange, additionally all students need to fulfil the prerequisites of each selected course (Assumed Knowledge in course descriptions).

3. Check if you fulfil the language criteria

The minimum requirement is English skills at B2 level (CEFR), but we recommend you to obtain C1 before your start in Wageningen. You need to hand in one of the tests mentioned briefly below (check the admission requirements for Level 1 on our website). In some cases it is possible to hand in a certificate from the language centre of your home university stating your level of English.

English proficiency (minimum scores)

- TOEFL internet-based: 80
- IELTS : 6.0
- Cambridge Certificate of Advanced English: C
- Cambridge First Certificate: B
- Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English: C
- German Abitur: 06
- Belgian ADO or TSO: 60
- International Baccalauréat: 3"

4. Apply at home university for exchange to WUR (home university selects and nominates)

You need to be eligible to participate in the exchange programme. Your educational institution selects and nominates candidates for student exchange to Wageningen University before the nomination deadline.

5. Apply for student exchange after nomination

You will receive instructions for your online exchange application. Personal guidance is ensured by Incoming Exchange Coordinators who will process your application and be in touch with you about your course selection after you have submitted your application.

Detailed information about the exchange application procedure at WUR, deadlines and how to select courses can be found on our exchange website: www.wur.eu/incoming

Living in Wageningen - Housing, introduction and more

Housing

Most students in Wageningen live with others in a corridor of student apartment buildings or in student houses spread all over Wageningen. These corridors and houses have individual student rooms and shared facilities like the kitchen and bathroom. Roommates often cook, eat and socialise together.

Rooms are available through the main student housing cooperation in Wageningen (Idealis), room.nl or on the private market.

Check our housing website for more information and advice on finding housing in Wageningen:

www.wur.nl/en/Education-Programmes/future-students/Student-Housing-1.htm. The housing market is tight so please do not wait until the last moment to look for a room.

Annual Introduction Days (AID)

The AID is a great start to your student life in Wageningen. During the introduction days you will discover many things that will help prepare you for your stay in Wageningen. In small groups you'll get to know the sports associations, student associations, the possibilities for going out, your classmates, WUR and all the other things that Wageningen has to offer.

Besides study-related activities, there are also many other things to do such as a sports day, a cycling tour, a cultural night and a pubquiz. There is a big chance that you will find an organisation that meets your interests and that you can join for the rest of your time in Wageningen! Participating in the AID is an opportunity to make life-long friends and to quickly feel at home.
